Working with Young People Workshops

Exploring issues that need to be considered to work with young people

These workshops are designed to give people an orientation to working with young people, they draw on the skills, experience and knowledge we have in preparing volunteers to work with young people and workshops can be adapted to meet the individual services needs. Workshops are designed to be interactive and hands on to maximise learning for participants.

Workshop/Session 1:
Child Safe Environments overview

Workshop/Session 2:
Appropriate language & challenging behaviours

Workshop/Session 3:
Behaviour Management & Conflict resolution

Workshop/Session 4:
Looking after yourself (including OHS&W)

If you are interested, and want to hear more, then contact us for a course overview...

By booking your training with us, you are helping us to continue offering our services & enriching lives of children, young people and families.
